Why Scouting?

For almost 100 years, Scouting programs have instilled in youth the values found in the Scout Oath and Scout Law. Today, these values are just as relevant in helping youth grow to their full potential as they were in 1910. Scouting helps youth develop academic skills, self-confidence, ethics, leadership skills, and citizenship skills that influence their adult lives.

The Boy Scouts of America provides youth with programs and activities that allow them to: Try new things. Provide service to others. Build self-confidence. Reinforce ethical standards.

While various activities and youth groups teach basic skills and promote teamwork, Scouting goes beyond that and encourages youth to achieve a deeper appreciation for service to others in their community.

Scouting provides youth with a sense that they are important as individuals. It is communicated to them that those in the Scouting family care about what happens to them, regardless of whether a game is won or lost.

Finally, and perhaps most importantly, Scouting promotes activities that lead to personal responsibility and high self-esteem. As a result, when hard decisions have to be made, peer pressure can be resisted and the right choices can be made.

Cub Scouts is presented with FUN- FIRST. Scouts have fun and learn in the process. Lots of interesting guests like local fire and police dept's, racing teams, Native Americans, Wounded Warrior project, Games, Races, Crafts, Pinewood Derby, Raingutter Regatta, Rocket Launch, Cub Scout Summer Olympics, Hiking, Camping and More.

Few will argue with the importance of teaching values and responsibility to our children - not only right from wrong, but specific, affirmative values such as fairness, courage, honor, and respect for others. Beginning with the Scout Oath and Scout Law, the Boy Scouts of America program is infused with character-building activities that allow youth to apply abstract principles to daily living situations. SUMMER is a great time for boys to join Cub Scouts!! Ease into the program; We have Summer Hiking and Camping planned! Meet new friends! Boys can earn their Bobcat Badge and be ready for a Great Fall Program.
